

Firefly Neural Architecture Descent: a General Approach for Growing Neural Networks

Wu et al. | NeurIPS 2020

This fixture summarizes a real paper on dynamic architecture growth.

Firefly descent expands width or depth by searching a functional neighborhood around the current network with a Taylor-based greedy selection rule.

The paper targets accurate and resource-efficient models, including continual learning.